

Supervising Safety Training

Course Price

£2750

Course Description

This short course is intended to improve the skills and knowledge of those who have responsibility to achieve company wide HSE policy.

Course Objectives

- Incidents prevention, Prevent Road Accidents/Incidents
- Detect/Report/Correct Unsafe Acts/ Conditions
- Train Personnel in Safety Awareness
- Establish Clear understanding of HSE Responsibilities

Who Should Attend

Managers, Team Leaders, Superintendents, Area Authority, Performing Authority, Supervisors, Welders, Electricians, HSE Professionals

Course Content

- HSE Policy
- HSE Training Program
- Safety Committee
- MSDS Responsibilities
- Supervisors HSE Responsibility
- Employee HSE Responsibility
- First Aid Program
- Responsibilities and Checklists in safety inspections
- New employees induction Responsibilities
- Security Guide for Employees
- Prevention and control of risks
- Hazard Communication Program

- Maintenance Schedule
- Personal Protective Equipment
- Occupational Health Program
- Accident Investigation
- Emergency Plan
- Inspections and external audits
- Registration and activities SHA accident
- Leadership and management commitment,
- Safety, environment and occupational hygiene:
Risk Analysis; Change Management; Operational procedures, safe work practices; HSE subcontractors; Mechanical Integrity, Compliance with laws, rules and standards Emergency response and control; Education and training; Review Pre-start; Investigation of Accidents and incidents and occupational diseases; Evaluation system.

CPD Unit

Continuing Professional Development

21 HOURS CPD